Why does it matter? What’s at stake?

The story you’re telling:
Taking practical, common sense steps to address problems facing our environment today is in the best interest of future generations.

- Change Is Natural/Fatalism
- Eat It While You Can
- Individualism
- Nature Will Fix Itself
- Nature Works In Cycles

• We believe in being responsible with our natural resources/when it comes to our environment.

• We can make a difference by handling problems before they get worse.

• Looking to evidence, keeping an open mind, and focusing on the best ways to solve a problem are part of being responsible.

• Future generations depend on the decisions and plans we make today.

• Practical, feasible, step-by-step approaches allow us to make real progress on longstanding challenges and obstacles.
